READY FOR WORK. The Hon. Rudolph Herring, of New York, the sanitary engineer who was employed by the council to give a plan for sewerage of the city, was seen at the Carey man and talks several systems quite fluently but had not learned sufficient data concerning the city to give any opinion as to the system that should be used here.

In speaking of general principals he said laterals of six and eight inches in diameter could not do good service even when flushed with less than fifteen feet fall per mile. The main sewer could not be less than four and one-half and five feet when twenty-four or thirty inches in diameter and would have to be flushed. Concerning the West system he said that it does not include a patent for pumping but more properly concerns a plan for disposing of the sewage. The system of pumping had been used for centuries but for any patents had been granted the West system.

Mr. Herring came here direct from Atlanta, where he has been engaged in a similar work and says that all the larger and important cities are beginning to find out that good sewerage is indispensable. As a result they are looking for the best system and plans known to engineering science. He thought it quite important to get the proper system and after this was secured and adopted it could be made of no use by bad construction.

Mr. Herring will spend most of the day in City Engineer Malvey's office securing data from the different surveys of the city. When armed with a good supply of facts he will take a ride over the city and when ready to give an opinion will probably meet the joint committee on sewerage composed of a committee from the board of trade and one from the city council.

MEETING OF COMMITTEES. The board of trade committee, Henry Clay committee and Young Men's Club committee, appointed to look after the welfare of the Republican delegate convention to be held on the 21st of next month, met yesterday at Senator Kelly's room. Geo. W. Walters was chosen chairman and Harvey Fleming secretary.

It was decided to look after the hotel accommodations, learning how many such houses could entertain, and charges. As a committee to investigate Senator Kelly and J. Fleming were appointed.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Kelly, Taylor, Douglas and Fleming was appointed to look after finances.

The president, Mr. Walters, was instructed to invite Col. H. W. Lewis to deliver the address of welcome.

Messrs. Fred Bentley and B. L. Keenan were appointed a committee to look after decorating the hall. It was suggested by some members of the committee that the two gentlemen mentioned would be successful in getting the ladies to assist in this very important feature, and hence their peculiar fitness for the decorative work.

The committee adjourned to meet next Thursday at 6 o'clock at the same place.

FOURTH WARDERS. A number of Fourth ward Republicans met last evening in suburban residence for the purpose of naming candidates for delegates to the county convention to be held on the 25th inst. to those delegates, to the two state conventions. The primary election to choose delegates to the county convention will be held Saturday next.

At the meeting for creating candidates best known to the public were: T. B. Mell, Geo. C. Strong, B. S. Garrison, John Bittman, J. C. Messman, R. E. Cummings, C. S. Smith, J. M. Balderson, G. O. M. Buckner, R. C. Dean, H. L. Taylor, E. B. Jewett, Geo. L. Douglas, H. D. Summons, Leo L. Alderman, D. V. Donnelly, Leo L. Harding, Murray Myers, A. R. Musselwhite, A. A. Wallace, J. S. Carson and J. W. Humphrey.

A committee consisting of J. M. Balderson and Col. Taylor was appointed to secure room for polls.

AN OPINION. Isaac Weil, a prominent and wealthy citizen of St. Joseph, Mo., and a gentleman who has been in business in that city for the past twenty years, was yesterday in Wichita. In a short conversation last evening at the Org, he stated that he was very much surprised at the wonderful growth and activity of the city. "It is," he said, "certainly destined to become one of the great cities of the west, and seems to have everything in its favor. I have been in the west for years, and I have seen the country spring up all over the country, but it does appear that this beats them all. I spent part of the day in driving over Wichita, and was particularly struck with its beautiful residences and magnificent business blocks. My faith is so great, and my interest such that I will, upon my return home, recommend it as a place of business to my two sons who are about to enter upon a mercantile life."

CHURCH SOCIAL. The socials given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Lincoln street church have proved to be very popular among the residents of the South Side, the programs have been good, and the committee make it a point to welcome strangers and make them feel at home and each social seems to grow in favor. This evening the society and all its friends will be entertained by the trustees of the church, Messrs. A. B. Jackson, E. C. Sumption and J. H. Jackson, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sampson, 847 South Lawrence avenue. Supper will be served from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. Gentlemen and ladies are all are cordially invited. The following program will be rendered: Declaration.....Mr. Chas. Hamilton Soprano solo.....Mrs. Bobb Nelson Recitation.....Miss Lottie Butler Song.....Miss Annie Dueson Violin.....Mr. Wm. Sims Duet, violin and piano.....W. O. E. Munsell, Miss Allie Munsell Recitation.....Mr. Chas. Hamilton

NOT STOLEN. Under Sheriff Brown Sunday night about 10 o'clock a horse in the sheriff's office and hitched his horse in the alley east of the court house. About an hour afterwards when he went for the animal he was gone. Believing the rig had been stolen, he immediately had instituted a search and even went so far as to send out cards announcing the theft. Yesterday the horse was recovered in the North Lawrence avenue livery stable, where he had been placed by a gentleman who had found him wandering about on the avenue. It appears, too, that the rig had not been stolen, but that the horse had broken loose and ran away; as several persons Sunday evening saw an outfit answering that of the missing property going east on Second at a very lively gallop.

BARN BURNED. Yesterday afternoon a barn near the corner of Lawrence and Williams took fire and burned to the ground. The boys of No. 3 saw the blaze from their house and did noble work in saving from destruction the buildings in the immediate vicinity. The fire is supposed to have been started by some children who were playing within the building with matches.

SOCIAL. The Emporia Avenue M. E. church Sunday school will have a sociable at their church tomorrow evening. All friends are cordially invited to come and spend a pleasant hour and get acquainted.

A WORTHY PROMOTION. By a circular issued by the Santa Fe management and signed by W. E. Goddard we see that A. E. Mead, son of W. R. Mead, of this city, has been appointed assistant auditor of the Sonora railroad company, with headquarters at Guzman, Sonora, Old Mexico. Albert's many old friends and associates in this city congratulate him upon the distinction of the proud position he has earned.

FREE TO ALL. The Wichita gun club desire to announce that on next Wednesday afternoon they will offer a $5 driving whip as a prize for the fastest mile made by any driving horse owned in the city of Wichita, driven by his owner, over the new mill track at the Wichita Exposition and Interstate Fair association grounds. There will also be a match shoot for the champion belt of the state by two members of the club. All are invited to attend. Admittance to the grounds 25 cents; carriages free.

ALL BIDS REJECTED. At the Masonic meeting last evening the location of the temple being considered, it was decided to reject all bids and a proposition was made for the northeast corner of Second and Market streets, which if accepted, will be the site of the magnificent temple. That location seemed to be most acceptable, considered in connection with the offer made. It is thought quite possible that the proposition will be accepted and the temple will finally be located at that point.

The lodge will further consider the matter at its next meeting.

BOARD OF TRADE MATTERS. The directors of the board of trade met yesterday afternoon. The committee on manufactures made a favorable report with reference to the North Bros. soap factory plant.

Committee on immigration made a report of progress, stating that they had in their employ a good man working up excursions.

Mr. G. L. Rouse, chairman of the sewerage committee, made a verbal report of progress.

The builders' exchange were granted the use of the board of trade rooms this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

It was agreed that the board of trade secure exhibition space in the Cincinnati exhibition for Sedgewick county, and that the county commissioners be requested to make an appropriation to defray a part of the expense. Messrs. Oliver, Murdoch, Thomas, Skinner and Corbett were appointed a committee to see the commissioners for this purpose.

The interests of the Wichita exposition was presented, and after discussion the following committee was appointed to follow stock: P. V. Healy, H. G. Toler, O. C. Daisy, G. H. Blackveider and B. S. Garrison.

Mr. H. L. Pierce was appointed a committee to confer with Mr. Gilbert in reference to his needs in the way of houses for employes and to devise some plan to meet the emergency.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR DELEGATES. The leading hotels of the city were seen yesterday, concerning furnishing accommodations for those attending the Republican state delegate convention. The candidates named were: T. B. Mell, Geo. C. Strong, B. S. Garrison, John Bittman, J. C. Messman, R. E. Cummings, C. S. Smith, J. M. Balderson, G. O. M. Buckner, R. C. Dean, H. L. Taylor, E. B. Jewett, Geo. L. Douglas, H. D. Summons, Leo L. Alderman, D. V. Donnelly, Leo L. Harding, Murray Myers, A. R. Musselwhite, A. A. Wallace, J. S. Carson and J. W. Humphrey.

It was agreed to charge no more than regular rates, and two expressed a willingness to make a slight reduction. This is said to be quite an improvement for delegates to state conventions when they were in the habit of going to Topeka. In those days the hotels would put up the prices—pool as it were—on convention occasions and take in the delegates for extravagant prices. When questioned concerning prices the hotel men said they had received letters from gentlemen expecting to be in attendance wanting to know how much beyond the regular price they would charge. The idea expressed by one seemed "funny." How much more? Why bless their souls, let them come, and the hotel men of Wichita will make them think they are gentlemen, and not fit subjects to be asked to do their best to entertain the visitors, and are determined that their part of the work shall give a good impression, and that the city in the future will come in for a fair divide of the state conventions.

CLEVER DETECTIVE WORK. For some time past Jimmy McMahon and one of his most trusted employes have been engaged upon a very knotty piece of detective work that on Sunday resulted in a very clever solution in their favor. Through their most excellent manipulation they succeeded in recovering a valuable Masonic seal and regalia which was stolen about a month ago from W. M. Coulson, of the Central house. The parties alleged to be implicated have been shadowed for some time and their movements watched with considerable interest by the detective and his assistant. They are W. E. Jewell and Miss Poynter, the former a Midland brakeman, the latter at one time a domestic employed at the Central House. The property itself was discovered in a valise in Jewell's room over a week ago, but it was not considered safe to take it or the owner of the valise as there might be trouble in fixing upon the proper parties to the theft.

The stolen articles were sent to Mr. McMahon's office that Jewell was about to leave, and he instructed Mr. Coulson to have an officer make the arrest immediately, as he could not then get out a warrant for the suspected person's arrest. Officers Winking and Burroughs then came to the place where Jewell was stopping and made his arrest; upon his person were found the stolen articles. He was confined in the county jail and yesterday when taken before Judge Walker he was unable to give the required $500 bond.

Soon after his incarceration, Detective McMahon obtained from him a statement which led to the arrest of Miss Poynter yesterday morning by Constable Rufus Come. She denies all complicity in the crimes and even denies ever living in the house from which the property was taken. She was brought before Judge Walker and giving the $500 bond was released for the present.

The stolen articles were valued very highly by Mr. Coulson, as they were given to him by a friend upon his death bed. They consist of a sash and apron richly wrought with Masonic emblems after a Mexican design; the square and cross are of solid silver and set with garnet and diamonds.

General John O'Day, vice president of the Frisco system, accompanied by one or two of the officers of that road, arrived in the city Sunday evening and spent yesterday in looking after some matters of a legal nature which will be heard by the district court.

DARNELL-HAYS. Mr. Ed. Darnell, whose painful duty it has for so long been to draw the bolts and place behind the bars the unfortunates who fell under the law's displeasure in this county, has himself been taken a prisoner by Cupid and held by fetters, though tender and loving, as strong as those ever welded by a state.

Ed's big honest heart is Miss Kate, the charming daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. W. Hays; a bright, vivacious young lady whose kindness and cheerfulness won her friends from all who knew her.

The bridegroom, Ed Darnell, a young man noble, upright, trueworthy, who has for several years acted as turnkey at the county jail. This curious duty he has performed not only with great credit to himself, but also at the same time with such kindness and tenderness that all who have been so unfortunate as to be placed behind the bars can not but remember him with the most kindly and generous feelings.

The ceremony was performed at the sheriff's residence on North Market by Rev. J. D. Hewitt, of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of only a few of the intimate friends of the high contracting parties. After congratulations and earnest good wishes from the guests, an elegant repast was served and heartily enjoyed. The newly wedded couple were the recipients of many handsome presents from friends and relatives. They start out upon life's journey together with the best wishes for future happiness and prosperity from a large circle of friends.

THE COURTS. POLICE COURT. Yesterday was an unusually busy day in the police court, Saturday and Sunday nights there were to be seen upon the streets more drunken men than for some time past, and many of the inebriated ones seemed to have fallen into the police officers' hands.

Chas. Church, Will Johnson, Chas. Miser, W. N. McFadden, Alex. Wood, Clark, William Burns, John McCreary and Dan Kennington were all found guilty of being drunk. Three of the number had money enough to pay the fine assessed, the others were all sent to the cooler where they were given employment in squads of three and four upon the stone pile.

The man Humley, who was captured trying to work a confidence game Saturday night, was yesterday morning brought into court to answer the charges preferred against him. He was not only guilty but had not succeeded in saving enough from his earnings to even pay his fine. An invitation to leave the city for the city's good was gladly accepted.

John Hoher was the name given by the man who had stolen the two pairs of pants from the famous and was captured by Officer Ebenbach in the south part of the city Saturday night. There were two charges preferred against him, petty larceny and drunkenness, to both of which he pleaded guilty. He too was remanded in fact most of the arrests were in that condition—and so was given good, steady employment upon the rock pile.

Barney Jones, John Miller and H. H. Park each paid $25 to the city for the privilege of being vagrants.

Charles Coon was called up yesterday to answer to the charge of keeping his place open on Sunday. He was guilty and paid for the commission of the offense. There were also three well known business houses which were pulled upon the same charge. The proprietors however claim that their arrest was due to spite work on the part of the police. However true this may be, they each paid $10 and costs.

EBERHART COURT. Report of sale in the Marcus Lowrie estate to work a confidence game Saturday night, was yesterday made and deed of same confirmed.

Philias Carr, administrator yesterday made a settlement in the estate of Geo. W. Cook, deceased.

Marriage license was yesterday issued to the following persons: Edwin F. Walker and Chessie Johnson, both of Chey, H. Tyson and Ellen Rumley, both of Havasville.

BEFORE JUDGE CAMPBELL. Yesterday at the judge's apartment in the county building, Judge Campbell acted as judge pro tem in two cases. The Thornton and Corwin vs. the St. Louis & San Francisco R. R. Co. and Consolidated Tank Line Co. vs. same. It was the hearing of an injunction wherein the plaintiffs enjoined the railroads from occupying certain lands adjoining their tracks for the purpose of building a new line of the railroads. Twenty days were granted in which to submit arguments, and a decree will be given at the next term of court.

JUSTICE COURT. The justice courts were yesterday both busily engaged in the trial of civil cases. Besides this, however, a warrant was issued for the arrest of W. E. Jewell and Miss Poynter, charged with stealing from W. M. Coulson, of the Central house, a valuable Masonic regalia valued at $200. They both were arrested; the former was sent to the cooler, the latter gave the $500 bond required.

William Jackson, the colored boy who is accused of stealing a valise the 1st day of April, had his case passed over until this afternoon.

AMUSEMENTS. THE SICKENS SECOND READING. Last evening Mr. Charles Dickens, Jr. made his second appearance in Hartford and was welcomed by an audience that filled every reserved seat in Unity Hall and the circle without the parquet. Such an audience on such a night, and especially on an evening when so many people had previous engagements, was a tribute to the reader which few others would have gained.

Mr. Dickens read a different program from the one announced, taking instead of chapters from "Dombey & Son" the familiar "Dr. Marigold," and instead of the shooting scene in "Pickwick" the famous trial scene in "Bardell against Pickwick." It may be that the change in the last selection was a disappointment to some of the audience who had heard the trial read but had not heard the shooting party chapter, but the change was one for which the reader might well be forgiven, so new and keen was the light thrown on the familiar lines by Mr. Dickens. Indeed, it seemed to have been a part of the plan of the evening to show how much more lay in the familiar chapters, at which almost every public reader has tried his hand, than had been brought out.

Last night Mr. Dickens was at his best, and his assumption of the character of Dr. Marigold was so perfect that one needed but to close the eyes and allow a little range to the fancy to believe that the old Chas. John stood there telling his pathetic story of his little girl and revealing unintentionally the wonderful, tender, unselfish heart of a great man, unknown to himself or anybody but his hearers. And then the voice stopped and the audience looked to the stage to see the man who had told them this splendid love story and saw not Dr. Marigold but the face of Mr. Dickens as he bowed his acknowledgment of the hearty applause that came after the momentary pause at the close of the story.

The trial scene, with its broadly humorous features, though trimmed of minor details, was so successful as the long reading, and the imitation of Mr. Justice Sturleigh, of Sergeant Burford, of the Weller and Mr. Winkle and the others was delightful.

Mr. Dickens scored a pronounced success at his first appearance here last November, and last evening's work can not without a circle who were anxious that he should visit Hartford again this season.—The Hartford Courant.

THE MUSEUM. Tony Ashton, the celebrated trick clown, is delighting the audiences at the Museum with his troupe of performing dogs. They are really fine. In the auditorium "Tan Conner's" dog has made an instantaneous hit, and Mr. Garrison, in the title role, is simply great. His songs are encored to the echo. This week's bill is Manager Robbins' greatest effort and he has succeeded well. Three handsome presents are given away this week.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. The open meeting of the Suffrage society will be held on Wednesday evening at the Congregational church, corner of Second and Lawrence avenue. Rev. Bicknell, of Valley Center, will be the orator of the evening. Miss L. B. Priddy will read the address that Miss Willard delivered at the international conference of women at Washington City. All are cordially welcome.

Garfield Relief Corps No. 40 will hold its regular session on Tuesday, April 17, at G. A. R. hall. By order of president, Mrs. L. DILLON.

Councilman W. L. Johnson sends a friend a bunch of flowers from Los Angeles. They were beautiful and remarkably well preserved. Names and other particulars will be in order when he returns.

The S. S. G. C. club held its first practice tournament yesterday afternoon on its field on South Hydrant avenue. The games used are the Scott long distance target rifle. Miss Hattie Hays was the best score, followed closely by Miss Blanche Brandon.

The talented and inimitable Dusenberry family will positively appear at Plymouth Congregational church, Thursday evening, April 19th. Don't fail to come for if you do you will miss one of the best and most moral entertainments ever given in the city.

Capt. Tom Shields on Sunday evening jumped a fence on Riverside and broke his right ankle. Physicians were called and same advised that the Captain is bound for a while and was practicing for the struggle when he met with the accident. His physician says he will be out again in a few weeks.

DR. JACOBS OIL RHEUMATISM. Cerrographic and Conclusive Testimony. Lowell, Mass., July 9, 1887. Gentlemen:—Mr. Lewis Doolittle has just called upon me, and told me that he had been cured by Dr. J. C. Jacobs Oil in 1881; the cure has remained permanent. The young man has been in low of work at the office of the case certainly proves the efficacy of Dr. J. C. Jacobs Oil. DR. J. C. JACOBS, M. D.
